Batchewana First Nation revitalizes Community Centre/Arena with new programming

Issued: February 19, 2016

Batchewana First Nation Chief and Council are thrilled to announce the new relationship between the Rankin Arena and the KBX Hockey Club. The Hockey Club owned by Ken Belanger, has purchased primary ice time at the Rankin Arena and will be delivering a wide array of new and exciting programming.

Chief Dean Sayers of Batchewana First Nation welcomes the new crowds, "The Rankin Arena has been known for it's excellent ice conditions and location, we as a council are excited to see more activities happening and can't wait to share our venue with new players and fans!"

The Rankin Arena is located on the Batchewana First Nation and will continue to be managed by the First Nation. Community programming such as free community skate times and fundraising events will remain the top priority of the facility.

Ken Belanger had this to say, "We at KBX Hockey Club know that hockey is fun to play, and we encourage this same attitude of fun and fair play while learning this great game. We have purchased ice time with the Rankin Arena and are extremely excited to offer new camps and clinics as well as our beloved hockey school at this venue."

PUBLIC NOTICE

Rankin Reserve

REFUSE COLLECTION WINTER OPERATIONS

During the winter the road is plowed to the ditch line. Residents must not place their garbage cans in the snowplow route to avoid being hit. Snow removal is a priority on our streets and public roads and cannot be impeded or hindered due to safety reasons. The Public Works will not be held responsible for any damages incurred if this is not adhered to.

Thank you for your cooperation and participation.

The Government of Canada amended the Criminal Code to create the offence of the Non-consensual distribution of intimate images.

An intimate image is defined as a visual recording by means of a photograph, film or video recording, etc... Please REFER to Section 162.1 of the Criminal Code of Canada for actual "wording". It is a criminal offence to share an intimate image of a person without that person's consent, regardless of the age of the person depicted in the image.

Cyberbullying:

- Harass another person, causing them to fear for their safety or the safety of anyone they know. (Criminal Harassment)
- Use threats, accusations or violence to try and force a person to do something or intimidate another person to cause them to do something, or not do something. (Extortion)
- Publish or make a false accusation, defame another person (insult, slur, offend). (Defamatory Libel)
- Secretly observe or make a visual recording of a person. (Voyeurism)
- Impersonate another person. (Personation)

NOTE: If an incident is reported to Police; they will investigate to determine whether or not to lay a charge.

Impacts:

- Hurt relationships
- Damage to reputations
- May hurt your self-esteem and self-image

- Cause problems with school
- May lead to self-harm and in some cases suicide
- May lead to a possible criminal record

Advice for Young People

- Don't request intimate photos or videos. You could be committing a criminal offence.
- Think about the consequences of taking, sending, requesting or forwarding a sexual picture of yourself or someone else. You could get kicked off of teams, face humiliation, lose educational opportunities and even get in trouble with the law.
- Never take images of yourself that you wouldn't want everyone—your classmates, your teachers, your family, or your employers—to see.
- Before hitting "send" remember that you cannot control where this image may travel. What you send to a boyfriend, girlfriend could end up with others.
- If you share a sexual recording of someone underage, you are as responsible for this image as the original sender. You could face child pornography charges, go to jail, and have to register as a sex offender.
- Report any nude pictures you receive on your cell phone to an adult you trust. Get your parents or guardians, teachers, and school counselors involved immediately.

- If you choose not to report an incident where you receive unwanted content, delete the message, photo or video.

FRAUD ALERT

Protect yourself!!!

EXAMPLES OF FRAUDULENT COMMUNICATIONS:

- Telephone
- By way of letter
- By email
- By text message

The Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) will not do the following:

- send email with a link and ask you to divulge personal or financial information; ask for personal information of any kind by email or text message.
- request payments by prepaid credit cards.
- give taxpayer information to another person, unless formal authorization is provided by the taxpayer.
- leave personal information on an answering machine.

When in doubt, ask yourself the following:

- Did I sign up to receive online mail?
- Did I provide my email address on my income tax and benefit return to receive mail online?
- Am I expecting more money from the CRA?
- Does this sound too good to be true?
- Is the requester asking for information I would not provide in my tax return?
- Is the requester asking for information I know the CRA already has on file for me?

YOU SHOULD REPORT DECEPTIVE TELEMARKETING TO THE CANADIAN ANTI-FRAUD CENTRE ONLINE OR BY CALLING 1-888-495-8501.

OR IF YOU ARE NOT SURE, PLEASE CONTACT YOUR LOCAL POLICE DETACHMENT OR ATTEND THERE SO THEY CAN ASSIST YOU WITH ANY QUESTIONS YOU MAY HAVE.

Three Day Workshops

Whether it be death, divorce, separation or abuse, unresolved losses in one's life can be a barrier to what you want to do and where you want to be in life.

Is it time to look at it?

We are holding a weekend workshop from Friday night to Sunday afternoon to assist in losses that you may have experienced and would like to look at in a safe environment and where confidentiality is assured.

Learn new skills/tools that will help you let go of what has been holding you back in your life. Share that experience with others who have been through the same.

Please Note: If you register, all 3 days must be attended.
