Funeral Feast Volunteers

Are you looking for something to do in your spare time?

Would you like to give back to your community?

Would you like to help with funeral feasts?

Batchewana First Nation will be maintaining a list of volunteers to help out with funeral Feasts.

Responsibilities include:

- 1. Making your way out to Goulais, Obadjiwan or Rankin to help out with funeral feasts when requested.
- 2. Setting up community Centre rooms for the feasts including tables, chairs, buffet table.
- 3. Receiving and organizing potluck or prepared foods on buffet tables.
- 4. Ensuring there is enough plates, bowls, silverware, condiments available.
- Serving the food
- 6. Clean up including putting tables and chairs away, removing garbage, sweeping where applicable, washing dishes, wiping surfaces.

Volunteers are invited to contact Dolly at the Band Office's front desk. You will need to leave your name and contact information.

Families who are in need of Funeral Feast Volunteers are asked to contact Dolly when they are in need of volunteers.

Dolly will provide volunteer names and numbers.

Families will be responsible for contacting the volunteers and community Centres to make arrangements.
