SPECIAL NOTICE

This special notice is to update the RHT Chiefs, Trustees, Band Managers/Directors and Citizens of our First Nations

Final Week of Hearings in Thunder Bay

The week of October 16, 2017 to October 19, 2017, in the Courthouse at 125 Brodie Street North in Thunder Bay, our key expert witness for our Treaty Annuities Case, Mr. Jim Morrison will give evidence of the historical facts of making the treaty in 1850. It will be very important for us to show unity and solidarity. We are asking RHT Chiefs, who are able, to be in the courthouse wearing traditional dress along with their sacred items and if possible bring their First Nation Staffs. There will be a closing ceremony, lead by Elder Leroy Bennett of Sagamok Anishnawbek, in the Courthouse, to close off the Thunder Bay segment of our court hearings.

Manitoulin Hotel and Conference Centre, Little Current

The Court then moves to Little Current, Ontario at the First Nation owned Manitoulin Hotel and Conference Centre in the week of October 24, 2017 to October 27, 2017. Ogimaa Duke Peltier of Wikwemikong Unceded Territory and Angus Toulouse of Sagamok Anishnawbek will introduce and speak to the court about our Anishinaabe Elder witnesses. Our Expert Witness, Alan Corbiere of M'Chigeeng First Nation will speak to the court about the Anishinaabe historical relationships and the traditional processes of treaty making. Elder Rita Corbiere of Wikwemikong will speak to the court about the importance of the Anishinabemowin language and how the Anishinabek understood the treaty-making process. We strongly encourage all of the Treaty Chiefs and citizens of the communities to attend the court hearings. Chiefs are asked to bring their Staffs to the courtroom. Schools in the area are invited to bring some of their students to the court also. We will also have a feast and ceremony on Thursday October 26, 2017 in Aundeck Omni Kaning at the Community Centre starting at 5:30 pm. All Anishinabek are invited to attend.

Garden River First Nation

The week of October 30 to November 3, 2017, court hearings will resume at the Community Centre in Garden River First Nation where Chief Dean Sayers and Elder Irene Stevens of Batchewana will give Anishinabe evidence. Our Anishinaabe Elder Expert, Fred Kelly of the Treaty #3 area will give evidence about Anishinabe law. The week will end with Expert Witness, Heidi Bohaker who will give historical evidence of treaty-making and the clan systems and governance relationships of the Anishinabek leading up to treaty-making. This will be an exciting week where our traditions, laws and culture are presented to the court. All RHT Chiefs and First Nation citizens are invited to attend. Chiefs are asked to bring their Staffs to the courtroom. A traditional celebration feast will be held at the Recreation Centre on Syrette Road starting at 5:30 pm. Everyone is invited to the court hearings and feast.

For further information, please contact Mike Restoule, Chair of the Trust at the above contact information.

Applications for FNIGC's 2017 National Student Bursary are now being accepted

October 13, 2017 - The First Nations Information Governance Centre (FNIGC) and its Board of Directors are pleased to announce the 2017 FNIGC National Student Bursary for First Nations post-secondary students.

The 5th annual bursary will grant $2,500 bursaries (along with free registration to FNIGC's Fundamentals of OCAP® course) to two qualifying First Nations students enrolled in one of these fields of study:

- Epidemiology,
- Population Health,
- Biostatistics, or
- Information and Data Management Technology.

The deadline for applications to the bursary, which is open to status First Nations University or college students, is November 10, 2017 at 4:00 p.m. EST.

FNIGC is a First Nations organization mandated to serve the information, research and training needs of First Nations people and communities. FNIGC conducts unique data-gathering initiatives, such as the First Nations Regional Health Survey and the First Nations Labour and Employment Development Survey.

These surveys provide an abundance of information, research, training, data collection, analysis and dissemination services to First Nations at the community, regional and national levels. The surveys also allow us to build culturally relevant portraits of the lives of First Nations people and the communities they live in. FNIGC recognizes that quality information - information that is collected by First Nations people for First Nations people - has the power to change lives by influencing knowledge based decision-making and inspiring effective policy and programs for all First Nations communities.

For further information on the FNIGC, please see our website at: www.FNIGC.ca

November Domestic Violence Awareness Month

One in every four women will experience domestic violence in their lifetimes.

An estimated 1.3 million women are victims of physical assault by an intimate partner each year. Most cases of domestic violence are never reported to the police. Witnessing violence between ones parents is the strongest risk factor of transmitting violent behaviour from one generation to the next.

Be aware. Help stop the cycle.

Men can be victims too.

Women are not the only victims of domestic violence and abuse.

Men also suffer from domestic abuse

-especially verbal and emotional abuse-and may be even more ashamed to seek help.
